The strength of SCEW lies in advocacy.

As a human rights and Civil society Organization, SCEW e.V. is running a Women's Campaign for Justice, Peace and Freedom since April 2020. The campaign is to raise global awareness about ongoing atrocities perpetrated by the regime of Cameroon on the English-speaking minority people in Cameroon also known as Anglophones or Southern Cameroonians.

We publish daily bulletin and pictures of members and supporters holding placards with slogans to bring these atrocities to light on our social media platforms.

While advocating for Justice, Peace, and Freedom, SCEW also calls on Peace organizations like the UNSC, the UN Human Rights' Council and other influential bodies, and persons to mandate an International Independent Fact-Finding Mission, to be sent to the English-Speaking regions in Cameroon to investigate the war crimes committed against the indigenous people.

Left: Thornberry UK - Parliamentarian, urges the UK govt to restrain from signing Trade Deals with the Cameroon govt. Instead, they should join the US-Senate to pressure the regime of Cameroon to stop gross violation of human rights.

Right: Rep. Karen Bass has been twice to Cameroon to help look for long lasting solutions to the armed conflict.

We also pressure the international Community to ensure that a Global Magnitsky Human Rights Accountability Act to implement sanctions against perpetrators and their facilitators, is carried out in Cameroon.

As Peacebuilders, our main goal of the diplomatic outreach is to push for an end to the armed conflict in the English-Speaking regions in the Cameroons by actively engaging ourselves to achieve the following.

- To work towards bringing the warring parties to agree on the implementation of a ceasefire.
- To bring both parties to dialogue, to negotiate and look for lasting solutions.

Humanitarian

In 2020 SCEW e.V. carries out 21 humanitarian projects to relief the war affected people in the English-Speaking Regions of Cameroon such as refugees, internally displaced persons, the wounded and political prisoners.

These include, supplying food and basic needs, paying hospital bills and buying medications, and counseling of some of our traumatized victims.

Although we help as many people as we can, we are more focused on the women and children because they are the most affected persons in conflict regions.
